

PlusFeed VPN

Easy and secure access to real-time market data via the Internet

PlusFeed Virtual Private Network is Interactive Data Real-Time Services' high-speed digital data feed delivered over the internet using leading edge security and encryption technology.

Interactive Data maintains multiple, redundant ticker plant facilities and data aggregation centers throughout North America, Europe and Asia. Designed for quick and easy access, Plus Feed VPN technology eliminates the need for any hardware installation at the client site.

Interactive Data uses Cisco VPN Plus solution (Cisco ASA 5520 Appliance) to provide connectivity to Interactive Data's data center with flexibility to use various VPN packages on the client side.

The following VPN software packages are supported:

- All Cisco packages
- Windows® 2000, XP and 2003 server
- Linux FreeS/WAN®
- Sonic Wall
- Check Point VPN-1

PlusFeed VPN Is Designed For:

- Financial applications that need real-time and delayed data with quick time to market and low set-up cost
- Financial applications that need access to streaming watch lists and snap Level 1 data
- Financial applications that need a broad range of exchanges with limited watch lists
- Clients who need real-time pricing for portfolios
- Quote retrievals for websites
- Low usage consumers of market data
